Dear Director Pepin,

We, the American Translators Association (ATA) and the National Association of Judiciary Interpreters and Translators (NAJIT), express our support for the dedicated court interpreters in New Mexico advocating for improved compensation and working condition

ATA, representing over 8,500 members across more than 90 languages, is the largest professional association of interpreters and translators in the United States. NAJIT is the largest national organization representing judiciary interpreters and translators in the United States.
